Dearest Lottie:

I received your letter today, and was very glad to hear from you. I sure am glad you met Naomi, and I would like to know how you ever found her name in the phone book. She sure looks cute from her picture. What did you do, go to a show with her? I sure would like to meet her. Why don t you invite her down to visit you in Birmingham sometimes?

I have written you and Mother 3 times to Aunt Annie's house, and write and hear from Daddy nearly every 2 or 3 days. I couldn t get off at the last minute to go home.

We are going somewhere in Texas next week, but where I don't know as yet. I got the jar of nuts yesterday, and they sure were good. I wish you would buy me a fountain pen with a very fine point. I need a very fine point, and not a broad point. I lost mine this week here in the woods.

I got a card from Daddy today, and he said he just got a letter from the War Department that we could send Bert a box of food. I am so happy that I don't know what to do. He sent the instructions to Mother so she can fix up a box. I really am happy now. It is just like getting a letter from him, isn't it?

Nat Reinfeld told me to tell you to call this girl, as she is a good friend of his: Helen Greenberg, 105 Westchester, Long Beech, N.Y. You might call her up sometimes.

That is about all so write soon. I received the jar of nuts yesterday, and we all enjoyed them immensely. They were wonderful. Thanks a million. Don't forget to look up Mrs. McDuff and Jennie Veo in Washington, D. C.

Love,

Harold
